A test conducted with a larger pump than first installed produced 100 gallons of water a minute from the recently sunk artesian well on the Morrison farm yesterday afternoon and so far as could be observed there was no lowering of the water. The well is located 150 feet higher than the house on the farm. The test was considered to be satisfactory. Quite a sizeable crowd of people watched the demonstration by the Bay State Artesian Wells Co., whose representatives are stopping at the Buzzell hotel during the week.

Best value in Barre! Valuable Main street property only a few rods from the postoffice on paved street; from 70 to 80 feet frontage; over 200 feet deep; improvements on property are paying $975 annually. Will sell at the ridiculously low price of $7,000. Splendid location for garage or business block; side track at rear; when you look this over, you will agree with us that this is the best trade in Barre City. The D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency.

Miss Marion F. Stickney was in Graniteville last evening, when she assisted Rev. Charles A. Boyd, secretary of the Vermont State Sunday School association, in an institute in which many Barre Town people participated. Services were held in the Presbyterian church, Miss Stickney, who is state superintendent of elementary work, speaking on some phases of her endeavors. In the Congregational church to-morrow evening Rev. Mr. Boyd is to speak on "The Poetry of the Bible," the lecture to be followed by 50 illustrations of the summer school at Northfield, Mass.

Draymen are engaged in transferring the stock and fixtures of the Diversi Fruit company from the south store in the A. Tomasi block to the corner store in the Arcade building on North Main and Pearl streets. Recent improvements and alterations in the new quarters of the company have transformed the store into an attractive location for an up-to-date fruit market. The Diversi company has purchased additional fixtures for its place of business and when the transfer is completed and the fruit men are finally located, there will be no finer fruit store in the section. It is said, a new soda fountain, modernly equipped, is being installed and a rather elaborate system of glass display cases is to be used. Unless there is a delay in getting settled the company expects to have its opening Saturday. The Tomasi store vacated by the fruit company is in the hands of carpenters, as it is possible that a liquor license will be located there.
